

THE CREED

Prof. Karen Kilby

BIOGRAPHY

Prof. Kilby is the Bede Chair of Catholic Theology, Centre for Catholic Studies, Durham University having taken up the role in January 2014, from her previous post of Head of Theology at Nottingham University.

Originally from Connecticut, Prof Kilby studied Mathematics and Theology at Yale & Cambridge, completing her Ph.D. on Karl Rahner.

Her wide ranging interests include the Trinity and the place of mystery in Christian thought. She is part of CAFOD's Theology Reference Group.

GALILEE TALKS SUBJECT

Prof. Kilby's presentation to the Galilee Talks' series is entitled "The Creed". Check the website for more information nearer the talk date.

THE VENUE

The Galilee Talks take place at Saint Mary's Catholic Church, Hexham in the Parish Centre. The talk starts at 11am with light refreshments served from 10:30am. The talk lasts roughly 45 minutes with 15 minutes dedicated to Q&A.

The Galilee Talks are free to everyone with a retiring collection to support the series.

Refer to the Saint Mary's Parish website for further information on finding us and the future talks in the series. Please come along to what promises to be an interesting and informative event.

www.stmaryshexham.org.uk

Saturday 1st December 2018