

God so loved the world...

The Cross is where darkness and light meet..
where God showed the depth of his love for the world.

Spend time simply holding the Cross.

Feel the hardness of the wood –
its age
and the work that has gone into making it.

Allow it to speak to you of love—
of sacrifice—
of darkness and death
giving way to light and life...
