

Some people see the bible as old-fashioned—and written in a funny language.

Some people wonder if Jesus was real.

Some people think that the Word of God is dead or that it is for other people.

For some people,
the only “gospel-writer” -
the only “gospel-liver”
they will experience is YOU.

What will people encounter
when they see and hear
the gospel according to you?