

Moses was going about his everyday business when something caught his eye—a burning bush.

He approached...
and encountered God

(You can read the account in Exodus 3)

How might God be trying to attract your attention as you go about your daily life?

How are you going to respond?