

All around the world today,
people are yearning for God to intervene—
to make things new for them.

Choose one of the photos or headlines.

Take it away to pray with over the coming week.

You might like to use the following or similar words:

“Send forth your spirit, O Lord,
and you renew the face of the earth.”